Dear school leaver,

Congratulations on your impending graduation!

This is a challenging, but nonetheless exciting time to be completing school. The future requires all of us to be adaptable and prepared. Exploring your options means accessing current information on a range of pathways, talking to your parents, friends, teachers and career advisers. The School Leavers' Guide is a great starting point.

When deciding what you might do after school, consider your interests, your likes and dislikes, your experiences at school, at home and within your community. Think about hopes and visions for your future and where you want to study, train or work.

In this guide there are sections about career development, further education and training options, financial assistance available to young people as well as useful contact details for more detailed information.

I trust you will find this information helpful. Please contact my office on (02) 6621 4044 if I can be of any further assistance. I also encourage you to enrol to vote if you have not yet done so – simply call my office and I will send you an enrolment form.

Good luck as you make the transition from school and I wish you every success in your future endeavours.

Yours sincerely,

Kevin Hogan MP

Education and Training Options

The Australian Government has proposed changes to the higher education system. It is important that current and future students understand how these changes may affect them.

Visit www.studyassist.gov.au for up-to-date information on these proposed changes.

Vocational Education and Training (VET)

Vocational education and training is competency-based and directly job-related. The VET system provides training for more than 4 million students annually in a wide range of workplace skills and knowledge-based competencies for a wide range of occupations. VET provides employment opportunities for learners and a skilled workforce for employers. Courses are offered through a variety of registered organisations (RTOs) including:

- TAFE institutes;
- Private training providers;
- Secondary schools;
- Employers and large enterprises;
- Industry organisations;
- Community training providers; and
- Universities.

For more information on VET courses and training providers visit www.myskills.gov.au

Universities

Universities offer a wide range of general and specific courses at undergraduate and postgraduate levels, with subsidised places and loans for study available to some domestic students through the Higher Education Loan Program (HELP).

If you are considering going directly from school to university, it is important to fully explore university and course requirements. Look at prerequisite Year 11 and 12 subjects for courses, and the campuses at which they are offered. You can visit www.qilt.edu.au to help you decide which university is right for you.

Some universities also run enabling courses that can help you build your skills in preparation for study or help you if you are unsure about what you might like to study.

It is possible to pursue university study by transferring from recognised VET studies or undertaking pathway courses.

Applying for University

You can apply to your chosen university through standard entry (on the basis of your senior secondary school qualifications), special or alternative entry, or advanced standing entry (credit transfer or credit for prior learning).

In most states and territories, and in some courses, applications are processed through a Tertiary Admissions (Service) Centre. Contact individual universities and Tertiary Admissions Centres for further advice.

Private Higher Education Providers

Approved private higher education providers are generally non-university higher education providers which offer a range of fee-paying courses leading to a higher education award course. Visit www.qilt.edu.au to view and compare higher education institutes.

Currently, only a few of these providers have been approved by the Government to offer Commonwealth supported places. However, many of them can offer a HELP loan.

Further information on higher education can be found at www.studyassist.gov.au

Distance and Online Study

Many providers offer alternative modes of study to tertiary students, such as online or distance education. You should check with providers directly.

One example is Open Universities Australia (OUA). OUAs are owned and operated by a consortium of Australian universities and offers students access to higher education study regardless of their ATAR, previous education, age or location.

For more information visit www.open.edu.au

Education and Training Options

Apprenticeships and Traineeships

An apprenticeship or traineeship is a great career path that kick starts your future with both a job and structured education and training.

It provides you with the opportunity to gain real world, hands-on experience while building important technical, business and service skills.

Anyone of working age can become an apprentice or trainee. You don't need to have any entry qualifications and there are a variety of study options at different certificate levels.

An apprenticeship or traineeship is offered in more than 500 occupations across sectors including building and construction, health care, agriculture, manufacturing, automotive, tourism, beauty, hospitality, mining and digital technologies.

Research shows that more than 90% of successfully completed trade apprentices and trainees and more than 80% of successfully completed non-trade apprentices or trainees are employed after training.

Whether you're looking to become a fully qualified tradesperson, a business manager, a healthcare expert or a financial planner, an apprenticeship or traineeship can help get you there.

For more information contact your local Australian Apprenticeship Support Network Provider on 13 38 73 or visit www.australianapprenticeships.gov.au

Australian Defence Force (ADF) Gap Year Program

The ADF Gap Year program provides an opportunity for young Australians, who have finished Year 12 or equivalent, to experience 12 months in the military without the obligation to make a longer commitment.

Participants learn practical and leadership skills, enjoy a healthy and varied lifestyle, meet new friends and may even receive recognised qualifications to help progress their future career - all while getting paid.

For more information please visit www.defencejobs.gov.au/education/GapYear.

Literacy and Numeracy Support

If you are not confident with reading, writing and maths, you may find it difficult to get a job. The Skills for Education and Employment (SEE) program can help you develop speaking, reading, writing or basic maths skills to help you improve your chances of finding and keeping a job.

SEE can help if you:

- Are from a non-English speaking background and need English language training at basic or advanced levels;
- Need literacy and numeracy training at basic or advanced levels; or
- Need advanced training for work purposes.

You can get up to 800 hours of free accredited training, starting at your own level and working at your own pace. Training is delivered flexibly through full-time or part-time hours, via face-to-face or distance training. A work experience component can also be included in some cases.

To find out if you are eligible for this program and to get a referral, talk to the Department of Human Services (Centrelink) or your local Employment Service Provider including:

- jobactive;
- Disability Employment Services;
- Community Development Program;
- Transition to Work; and
- ParentsNext.

For further information about SEE visit: www.education.gov.au/skills-education-and-employment

$ Financial and Other Support

The Australian Government has proposed changes to the higher education system. It is important that current and future students understand how these changes may affect them.

Visit www.studyassist.gov.au for up-to-date information on these proposed changes.

The Government is helping thousands of Australians to become qualified in their chosen field by providing access to a Commonwealth supported place, a student loan through HELP (including VET Student Loans), or support for apprentices through Trade Support Loans. A loan is a serious commitment. It is a real debt that must be repaid when you reach a certain income level (this income level for the 2017-18 income year is $55,874). Make sure you understand your rights and obligations before signing up to any sort of loan.

Commonwealth Supported Places

At the undergraduate level, many higher education providers (particularly universities) offer Commonwealth supported places to students who are Australian citizens. A Commonwealth supported place means that the Government funds part of the cost of the degree through a direct payment to the university, while you are required to pay the rest of the cost (this is called the student contribution amount). The taxpayer also pays your portion of the course costs to universities upfront, which you can defer repaying until you are earning over the threshold amount.

Higher Education Loan Programme (HELP)

At the undergraduate and postgraduate levels, HELP assists eligible students with their student contribution amounts or tuition fees at university and other higher education providers.

Eligible students have access to deferred payment arrangements through HELP. The HELP scheme consists of various loans:

- HECS-HELP is for eligible Commonwealth supported students to cover their student contribution amounts;
- FEE-HELP is for eligible fee-paying students to cover their tuition fees;
- SA-HELP is a loan that assists eligible students to pay for all or part of their student services and amenities fee;
- OS-HELP is to assist eligible students who undertake part of their study overseas with a range of associated expenses, such as airfares and accommodation.

Further information about the HELP loan schemes, including information on VET Student Loans, can be found at studyassist.gov.au and education.gov.au/vet-student-loans

VET Student Loans

VET Student Loans assist eligible students enrolled in eligible higher level (diploma and above) vocational education and training courses at approved course providers to pay their tuition fees. The VET Student Loans program commenced on 1 January 2017, replacing the VET FEE-HELP scheme, which closed to new students on 31 December 2016.

A list of approved VET Student Loans providers, eligible courses and course caps are available at www.education.gov.au/vet-student-loans, or search for providers and courses on www.myskills.gov.au.

Repaying your HELP Debt

All debts accrued under HELP are indexed each year on 1 June (currently by the Consumer Price Index). This includes VET Student Loans.

Repayments are dependent on your income. In 2017-18, students will start repaying their HELP debts when their income reaches the minimum repayment threshold of over $55,874.

Please note: the Government has proposed a number of changes to the higher education system to commence from 2018, including to the HELP repayment arrangements.

For up-to-date information visit www.studyassist.gov.au

For more information on HELP repayments, call the Australian Taxation Office on 13 28 61 or visit www.ato.gov.au.

Scholarships

A variety of scholarships and awards are available for students to gain financial help for their tertiary studies. Details will become available from universities and other higher education providers during 2017.

$ Financial and Other Support

Trade Support Loans

An Australian apprentice or trainee working in a skills need area may be eligible for a Trade Support Loan of up to $20,420 to help cover the costs of living and learning.

The loans are flexible to meet your needs with money deposited into your bank account every month.

You choose what to spend the money on. You can buy work gear such as tools or boots or use it to cover living expenses such as rent, phone bills and bus tickets.

You can opt in and out of the loan anytime and borrow a small amount or take the full amount over four years.

Only once you earn $55,874 will you start repaying the money through the tax system.

For more information contact an Australian Apprenticeship Support Network in your region on 13 38 73 or visit www.australianapprenticeships.gov.au

General Benefits

Department of Human Services (DHS)

DHS provides people with relevant services and payment options, including referrals to employment service providers, DHS specialists and other departments and agencies. A number of options and payments are available for people who are planning to study, train or look for work.

Youth Allowance

Youth Allowance can assist you if you are a young person who is:

- Studying full-time;
- Undertaking training or a full-time Australian Apprenticeship;

- Looking for work; or
- Sick.

Eligibility is based on many things including:

- Your age and whether you are undertaking an approved course or activity;
- If you are dependent or independent;
- Income and assets tests; and
- Residency requirements.

You may be eligible for Youth Allowance if you are:

- 16–21 years old and looking for full-time work or undertaking approved activities;
- 18–24 years old and studying full time;
- 16 or 17 years old and have completed year 12 or equivalent, or undertaking full-time study and need to live away from home in order to study, or are considered independent for Youth Allowance; or
- 16–24 years old and undertaking a full-time Australian Apprenticeship.

For more information about Youth Allowance, visit www.humanservices.gov.au/youthallowance.

You can ask DHS general questions and keep up to date with their latest news on social media.

Like them on Facebook at Student Update or follow them on Twitter @StudentUpdateAU.

Rent Assistance

Rent Assistance is an extra payment to help with the higher costs of renting in the private rental market. Thresholds and maximum amounts of Rent Assistance vary according to your family situation.

You may be able to get Rent Assistance if you:

- Qualify for an income support payment (special rules apply if you are under 25) or receive more than the base rate of Family Tax Benefit;
- Pay rent above a certain amount (called the rent threshold); and
- Are living in Australia.

Low Income Health Care Card

If you are a student, looking for work, an Australian Apprentice, or on a low income you may be eligible for a Low Income Health Care Card. This card entitles you to get a prescription filled at a reduced cost and other concessions.

For more information call 13 24 90 or visit www.humanservices.gov.au/lic

ABSTUDY

ABSTUDY is the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Study Assistance Scheme. If you are an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander, ABSTUDY may assist you if you are:

- Studying at primary school and you are at least 14 years of age or over at 1 January of the year you study;
- Studying at secondary school;
- Studying full-time or part-time after having left school;
- Studying a Masters or Doctorate course; or
- Undertaking a full-time Australian Apprenticeship.

For more information call 1800 132 317 or visit www.humanservices.gov.au/abstudy

Finding Employment

A full-time, part-time or casual job brings with it an income, freedom and the chance to learn new skills. There are a number of ways to get help finding work.

Employment

When you are trying to get a job there are things you can do to make the process easier. You might want to:

- Spend some time developing your career portfolio;
- Consider the skills and attributes that employers are looking for;
- Learn more about the steps involved in looking for work;
- Get feedback on your résumé and job applications;
- Consider directly approaching employers to ask about opportunities;
- Practice your interview techniques; and
- Follow up any applications you have circulated.

There are a number of ways to get help finding work. You may find the list of useful websites at the back of this resource a good place to start.

Youth Jobs PaTH (Prepare-Trial-Hire)

The Youth Jobs PaTH will help equip 120,000 young Australians by getting them ready, giving them a go and getting them a job.

PaTH will maximise the chances of young Australians under 25 getting a job through the following initiatives:

Employability Skills Training

Beginning on 1 April 2017, Employability Skills Training will be delivered to all young Australians in jobactive (aged 15-24 years) within five months of a job seeker being in employment services.

Internship Placements

From 1 April 2017 up to 30,000 young Australians per year will be able to volunteer to undertake a 4-12 week internship paying job seekers $200 a fortnight on top of their income support payment.

For more information visit
www.jobactive.gov.au/path

Empowering YOUTH Initiatives

The Empowering YOUTH Initiatives will give young Australians the extra help they need to move into work and will focus on young people who are living in regional areas with high levels of social disadvantage, early school leavers, Indigenous, or those young Australians from a culturally and linguistically diverse background.

For more information visit www.employment.gov.au/empowering-youth-initiatives

Transition to Work

Transition to Work will ensure young people aged 15-21 receive intensive support from community-based organisations with expertise in helping them to develop their work-like skills.

For more information visit www.employment.gov.au/transition-work

Engaging Early School Leavers

The Engaging Early School Leavers initiative strengthens requirements for young people aged 15-21 years who haven't completed Year 12 to continue their education or look for work to receive Youth Allowance.

For more information visit www.employment.gov.au/engaging-early-school-leavers

Work for the Dole

Work for the Dole, part of jobactive, helps people aged 18 and over to gain the skills they need to become work-ready and make a contribution to their local community.

For more information visit www.employment.gov.au/work-dole

Finding Employment

The National Work Experience Programme

National Work Experience Programme aims to build confidence and real life work experience for people, and prepare them to meet expectations of employers by undertaking unpaid work experience with businesses, not-for-profit and Government organisations for up to 25 hours per week for a maximum of four weeks per placement.

For more information visit www.employment.gov.au/national-work-experience-programme

jobactive

jobactive is a national network of private and community organisations dedicated to finding jobs for unemployed people. If you are a registered job seeker and in receipt of an eligible income support payment, jobactive can help you.

Your jobactive provider will enter your employment history and education into the JobSearch database (jobsearch.gov.au), which will automatically match your experience against available jobs.

For more information about jobactive visit www.employment.gov.au/jobactive

Community and Volunteer Work

Volunteer work is an excellent way of experiencing new challenges and learning about the world of work.

Volunteers provide a valuable service to the community. There are a variety of organisations that rely on volunteers and it can be a great way to gain new skills and build on your work experience.

For more information visit
www.volunteeringaustralia.org

Starting a Business

Starting a business is another option to consider. There are more than two million small businesses operating across Australia and you do not need formal qualifications or business experience to start and run a business.

There are a number of programmes aimed at helping you build your enterprise skills and develop innovative ideas, as well as providing sources of training and education.

For more information visit
www.business.gov.au

You can also contact your local Business Enterprise Centre at www.becaustalia.org.au for one-on-one advice and help.

Additional Information

Medicare

Medicare ensures all Australians have access to free or low-cost medical, optometrical and hospital care. Medicare provides access to:

- Free treatment and accommodation as a public patient in a public hospital;
- Free or subsidised treatment by health professionals such as doctors (including specialists), participating optometrists and other allied health practitioners; and
- Free or subsidised basic dental services for eligible children between 2 and 17 years of age.

How to obtain a Medicare Card

You need to enrol in Medicare to get a Medicare card, which can be used to claim Medicare benefits and get subsidised medicines under the Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme.

You must be one of the following in order to be eligible for Medicare:

- An Australian citizen who resides in Australia;
- A New Zealand citizen who resides in Australia;
- An Australian permanent resident (including returned resident) who resides in Australia;
- An applicant for a permanent resident status who resides in Australia (exclusions apply);
- A resident of a Reciprocal Health Care Agreement (RHCA) country who is visiting Australia; or
- Covered by a Ministerial Order.

You may already be listed on your parents' Medicare card. Young people over the age of 15 may enrol on their own Medicare Card.

To get your own Medicare card, you can download a Medicare enrolment or transfer application form (if you are on your parents' card) from the DHS website or visit a DHS Service Centre.

You will need to provide some form of identification (like a passport or student ID). If you haven't been enrolled before, you may need to provide eligibility documents.

Remember to take your Medicare card with you when visiting a doctor or when you have a prescription filled.

For more information visit www.humanservices.gov.au or call 13 20 11.

Enrolling to Vote

Voting is both your right and your responsibility as an Australian. It is compulsory for all Australians 18 years and older to enrol and vote (although you can pre-enrol when you turn 16). Failure to vote at an election can result in a fine.

Enrolling for federal, state and local government elections can be done by filling out a single form, available from the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) website (select Enrol to vote), post offices or your local Member of Parliament.

For more information contact the AEC on 13 23 26 or visit www.aec.gov.au

Tax File Number

Your tax file number (TFN) is your personal reference number in the tax and superannuation systems. You keep the same TFN even if you change your name, change jobs, move interstate or go overseas.

Your TFN is an important part of your tax records, as well as your identity, so it's important to keep it secure.

You must provide your TFN or a certificate of an application for a TFN when you apply for a study or training loan. You also need your TFN to be able to apply for government benefits, lodge your tax return electronically or get an Australian business number (ABN). How to apply for a TFN will depend on your circumstances.

For information on how to apply for a TFN visit www.ato.gov.au/TFN

For more information contact the ATO on 13 28 61 or visit www.ato.gov.au

Unique Student Identifier

A Unique Student Identifier (USI) is a reference number that links together training records from different training providers, in different states, and across different years – all in the one record.

Students can view their training records or transcripts online through their USI account. They can also download or print their USI Transcript and share it electronically with training providers and employers of their choice.

All students undertaking nationally recognized training must provide a USI to their training provider unless exempt. It is free and easy to create and stays with you for life.

For more information please visit www.usi.gov.au.
